

Resources for understanding and responding to attacks on US federal research funding

Last updated June 23, 2025

This document lists resources that may be relevant to Society of Family Planning members seeking to better understand the current administration's attacks on US federal research funding and engage in organizing efforts to protect it. This is not intended to be a comprehensive or Society-endorsed list of resources. If you would like to add a coalition, organization, or resource to this list, please email OMuraleetharan@SocietyFP.org.

Table 1. Coalitions and organizations working to defend US federal research funding

Name	Primary audience	Organizing resources and actions
AcademyHealth	Health services researchers, health policy professionals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Situation report tracking relevant policy changes</li><li>• Monthly Town Halls for AcademyHealth members focused on policy and funding challenges impacting health services and health policy research</li><li>• Blog post outlining suggestions for what researchers can do</li></ul>
American Association of University Professors (AAUP)	Faculty, academic professionals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• List of resources and upcoming actions related to federal funding and attacks on science</li><li>• Guide to understanding the law and policies for NSF grant terminations</li><li>• Co-plaintiff for temporary restraining order to prevent the administration from using executive orders to terminate essential grants and contracts</li></ul>
American Public Health Association (APHA)	Public health professionals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Action Alerts with easy-to-use templates and resources to contact Congress in response to changes to public health policy</li><li>• Webpage summarizing resources and news related to "public health under threat"</li><li>• Co-plaintiff in lawsuits against funding freezes and</li></ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>other executive actions</li> <li>● Google form for APHA members to support litigation related to the termination or delay of federal grants since January 20, 2025</li> </ul>
Defend Public Health	Public health professionals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Google Group with thousands of public health professionals organizing to share news, develop a coordinated media and advocacy strategy, and crowdsource data related to defending public health (Fill out this Google form to join)</li> <li>● Survey to quantify the impact of NIH terminations across demographics and career phases</li> </ul>
Higher Education Labor United (HELU)	Unions that represent university staff, academic workers, and others	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● List of Solidarity Asks from higher education labor organizations looking to build solidarity with workers</li> </ul>
House Committee on Science, Space, and Technology (Democratic staff)	Researchers with terminated grants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Confidential Survey for researchers to submit information to Democratic Congressional staff about terminated federal research awards</li> </ul>
Liminal	Science communicators and scientists	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Meeting the Moment, a free, weekly newsletter tracking what's happening to science and higher education</li> <li>● Scientists in Solidarity Action Hour, a monthly space for researchers to make sense of what's happening and move into strategic, collective action</li> </ul>
Save Health Research	NIH staff and general public	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The Bethesda Declaration, a letter to the NIH Director urging him to restore delayed or terminated grants; restore peer review; remove the 15% cap on indirect costs; and more</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Bethesda Declaration support letter, where additional NIH staff, scientists, academics, health care providers, and members of the public can sign on in support of NIH staff and the Bethesda Declaration</li> </ul>
Stand up for Science	Science activists	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Resources and actions to support scientists in ending censorship and political interference in science; securing and expanding scientific funding; and defending programs that offer equal opportunity for all people in science</li> <li>• SCIMaP of federal health research cuts by state, House district, and county</li> </ul>
Union of Concerned Scientists	Scientists, analysts, policy experts, organizers, and communicators	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Save Science, Save Lives campaign, which, among other work, compiles scientists' stories to share with Congress, the media, and the public and coordinates a sign-on letter and a Congressional advocacy template for scientists</li> <li>• Coordinates the UCS Science Network of over 18,000 members working to advance the role of science in policy making</li> </ul>

Table 2. Resources for understanding and tracking attacks on US federal research funding

Name	Type of resource	Description
Grant Watch	Grassroot tracking of grant terminations	Project of Noam Ross, Scott Delaney, Anthony Barente, and Emma Mairson, with input and support from additional volunteers. Maintenance of the NIH Grant Terminations in 2025 tracker based on aggregate data from news reports, social media, Doge.gov, USA Spending.gov, NIH's X feed, NIH RePORTER, and the HHS TAGGS system and PI submissions to this form. Maintenance of the NSF Grant Terminations in 2025 tracker based on researcher submissions through this form and augmented with data from NSF's Award Search and USA Spending.gov. List of pointers for appeals of NIH grant terminations
HHS list of terminated grants	PDF list	List of HHS grants that have been terminated in February and March 2025 based on the HHS Office of Grants' Tracking Accountability in Government Grants System (TAGGS)
NIH study section tracker	Grassroots tracker	Google Sheets tracker developed by Annika Barber (Rutgers University) to track NIH study section meetings that have been cancelled or rescheduled. Pulls data from the NIH Center for Scientific Review
Stat News	Publication	Publication focused on health, medicine, and scientific discovery news, which provides coverage of federal funding cuts